Northwestern Air Adds New Service between Red Deer and Grande Prairie.

November 20th, 2014 (Red Deer, AB) – Northwestern Air is pleased to announce the addition of a new regularly scheduled non-stop service between Red Deer and Grande Prairie effective December 1st, 2014. The new route will operate between Red Deer Airport (YQF) and Grande Prairie Airport (YQU) 4 days per week.

"We are expanding our service from Red Deer to include Grande Prairie. We have a long and very successful partnership with the Red Deer Airport Authority and the surrounding communities and we are excited to see our offering from the airport continue to grow" said Ty Roberts, General Manager of Northwestern Air.

With the addition of Grande Prairie, Northwestern brings its destination offering from Red Deer to three cities including Fort McMurray and Kelowna.

"Adding another link within the province is great business news for both the Grande Prairie and Red Deer regions." Said RJ Steenstra, CEO, Red Deer Airport Authority. "With the strong business connections that exist this is an important route expansion for our region and it gives Central Albertan's a more convenient travel option." He adds. "The airport continues to be committed and focused on serving Central Albertan's and maximizing regional economic growth and this new route is another important step.
